Speaking of hot, how about the clever paint scheme on Matt Peace's F-100 from Tyler, TX? Not too loud and not too subtle—just right.

Bob and Bobbi Dillon came over to Tennessee by way of Virginia this past May with their fairly modified '55. Along with suicide doors and a chopped top, among other things, the truck also features a flip-forward hood—but take a look at what lies beneath. That's one cool induction setup, ain't it?!
